SHAW HALL

SHAW HALL

Shaw Hall, erected in 1871, the first building on the campus named in honor of Elijah Shaw, contained a dormitory for women and men students.

Was first called the University Church and erected in 1948. The structure was made possible through the generous contributions of northern and southern church groups of both races. The church was rebuilt in 1955 and cost over $300,000 with a seating capacity of approximately 550. Today the chapel houses the offices of the Dean of the Chapel and seminar rooms.
