ESSAY

Please write an essay, not to exceed two pages, answering this question:

Egregious displays of disrespect — "YOU LIE!", not shaking the hand of the President of the United States. We have entered what columnist Kathleen Parker calls "a political era of uninhibited belligerence," that is finding expression in sermons, at town hall meetings, on radio talk shows, at award shows, even on the floor of Congress -- especially when we differ. Why are people so angry and belligerent, and so willing to express their anger publicly? Why has our civil discourse become so uncivil? Please include the essay with this application.
