Shaw University Divinity School is proud to announce its 73rd Annual Church Leadership Conference: Transparency and Integrity in the Church, Saturday, June 26, 2010.

This year's Leadership Conference offers 8 great workshops which have been designed to provide basic leadership principles for the entire church. Participants will be able to attend at least two workshops of their choice, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Pastors are encouraged to bring/send at least 6 participants in order to benefit from all of the workshops. For every 6 paid participants, you are able to register 2 more, free. (Participants that register free will be required to pay for their own lunch.) Certificates of participation will be given at the end of each workshop.

In addition, there will be a special Youth Seminar* which is designed to help our youth combat some of the spiritual warfare and peer pressures they encounter in today's society. The morning session will address Peer Pressure and Sexual Behaviors; the afternoon session will address Peer Pressure and Gang Violence. Each session will conclude with a panel discussion of What Can the Church Do to Help? We suggest that you bring your youth on Friday and stay overnight for a full, and blessed weekend.

You don't want your youth to miss out on this seminar!!!
