Excerpts from President Newsome's speech to faculty, students, and staff during the announcement of his appointment on February 13, 2003.

"Shaw University will meet a standard and then we will raise it higher. Only the best!... There is no substitute for excellence... People have a way of rallying around excellence. People have a way of bringing to you even what you don't need when they see excellence because they want to be near it, because they want to be associated with excellence and we are going to make excellence live as we have done over the years and in a new and resounding way, ways that help to make clear this statement: A New Shaw, for a New Millennium!"

The Shaw University Graduate Catalogue 2003 - 2004 will remain as the current graduate catalogue through December 2004.
LEONARD HALL - Erected in 1881
Leonard Hall housed the 1st four-year medical school in the United States. From 1886 to 1914, there were approximately 432 graduates.

INTRODUCTION

Accreditation

Shaw University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; Telephone number 404-679-4501) to award the associate degree, the bachelor degree and the master’s degree.

Mission

Shaw University, founded in 1865, is the oldest historically black college in the south. Shaw is a private, coeducational, liberal arts University affiliated with the Baptist Church. The University awards degrees at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Shaw University is committed to providing educational opportunities for a diverse population who otherwise might not have the opportunity for education.

The primary mission of the University is teaching with the commitment to maintain excellence in research and academic programs that foster intellectual enhancement and technological skills. Additionally, the University stresses character development, which includes religious, cultural, social, and ethical values. Ultimately, Shaw University endeavors to graduate students with demonstrated competencies in their chosen fields of study.

History

On December 1, 1865, when Henry Martin Tupper undertook the organization of a theology class as a means of teaching Freedmen to read and interpret the Bible, no one envisioned the end result of this being the establishment of a university. Rapid growth in the size of this class led to the purchase of land in 1866 for the purpose of erecting a building to serve as both church and school. The school was named the "Raleigh Institute," and it functioned as such until 1870, when it was supplanted by the "Shaw Collegiate Institute." In 1875, it was incorporated as the "Shaw University," which name it still bears, with the charter specifying that students were to be admitted without regard to race, creed, or sex. The school does not bear the name of its founder but of Elijah Shaw, the benefactor who provided funds for the first building, Shaw Hall, erected in 1871.

The coeducational emphasis of the institution was noted with the erection of the Estey Seminary (1873), the first dormitory in the United States for "Black Women." Named for its primary benefactor, Jacob Estey, the building was used as a residence hall for women until 1968 and for men from 1968 to 1970. The building is listed in the National Register of Historic Places and now serves as a cultural center for the Raleigh community.

The University graduated its first college class in 1878, its first class of medical doctors in 1886, awarded its first law degree in 1890, and its first pharmacy degree in 1893. In 1909, the Normal Department was supplanted by an Education Department, and in 1910, the Preparatory Department became a four-year academy. The professional schools were closed in 1918, but the college, theological department, and academy were continued, the latter existing until 1926. The theological department became a theological seminary in 1933 and continued as part of the University until 1976, when it became an independent institution. Since 1921, Shaw has functioned primarily as a liberal arts college, although it has retained its name as a university.

In 1931, the University elected its first Black president, Dr. William Stuart Nelson, who was president from 1931 to 1936. In 1963, the University elected its first president who is an alumnus of the school, Dr. James E. Cheek. He remained president from December 1963 through June 1969. Dr. Talbert O. Shaw, the current President of Shaw University, has led the institution in its "strides to excellence" since 1987. He and Shaw University was the subject of a March 1994 cover article in The Chronicle of Higher Education, this country's most important journal on colleges and universities. The article focuses on the University's recent history, remarking on the great strides it has made and the momentum it has developed.
Graduate Programs

Admissions

A student must submit a completed admission application form, which is available in the respective college or school. The deadlines for the various graduate programs are as follows:

College of Graduate and Professional Studies

- Applicants Living in the U.S. & U.S. Citizens
  - For fall semester admission: June 1
  - For spring semester admission: October 31
  - For summer session admission: April 1

- International Applicants
  - For fall semester admission: March 1
  - For spring semester admission: August 1
  - For summer session admission: December 1

Shaw University Divinity School

Students desiring to enroll for the fall semester should apply by July 15th, students desiring to enroll for the spring semester should apply by November 15th, and students desiring to enroll for the summer semester should apply by April 15th.

Financial Information for All Masters Programs

TUITION AND FEES 2003-2004
- Tuition (Full-Time - 9 hours): $3,501.00
- (Part-Time-Per Credit Hour): 389.00
- Administrative Fee: 373.00
- Technology Fee: 127.00
- Application Fee: 50.00
- Graduation Fee: 150.00
- Transcript Fee (3-5 days processing): 4.00

Full-Time Tuition Plus Fees Per Semester: $4,001.00
Full-Time Students. Tuition charges are based on the assumption that full-time students will take an average of nine (9) semester credits per semester. Full-Time tuition for the 2003-2004 academic year is $3,501.00. All tuition and fees must be paid in full at the time of registration.

Part-Time Students. Students registered for part-time study are those who enroll in less than a nine-semester hour course load. Tuition is $389.00 per credit hour course and must be paid in full at the time of registration.

Payment Of Fees
In order to complete registration, students must be prepared to satisfy all tuition and fees through either direct payment or financial aid. Cash, certified or cashier's check, money order or credit card (MasterCard or Visa) is required for direct payment.

Certified/cashier's checks or money orders should be made payable to Shaw University. All payments sent by mail should include the student's name and social security number. PERSONAL CHECKS ARE NOT ACCEPTED.

All students are advised that the first payments received by the University will be applied to their accounts. Refunds will be processed only after obligations to the University have been satisfied.

Payments for books and supplies should be made separately from tuition and fees. Each student should be prepared to purchase textbooks and necessary supplies at the beginning of each semester. The average cost of books for a full-time student is $400 per semester, however this may vary depending upon the course of study. The University cannot advance or lend money to students for textbooks purchases.

Refunds
Before requesting a refund, students should be sure that sufficient funds are available for the next semester. The University computes its charges on a semester basis. Consequently, if the University receives money from a one-time scholarship or loan source (for example, Guaranteed Student Loan) such funds will be applied, in full, against the semester in which it is received. This may create a credit balance for the semester.

1.) Financial Aid Refunds

In the determination of a student's financial package, the University takes into consideration any funds that are available to cover the cost of the student's education, including funds made available for student assistance by a third party in the form of tuition assistance, scholarships, or payment on the student's behalf.

The student is obligated to advise the University of any funds available to him or her of which the student has knowledge. The student must report any scholarship, grant, work, stipend, or change in financial condition that is not specifically listed on the award notification for possible revision of the aid award.

When the University receives funds to cover the student's cost of education, the amount of any award made to the student from University funds shall be reduced if the combined total to the student from University funds and the additional funds received exceeds the student's educational cost at Shaw.

Students who have overpayments (credit balances) as a result of federal financial aid do not need to request a refund. These refunds will be processed automatically.

2.) Other Refunds

A student is eligible for a refund after all charges have been posted to the student's account. Refunds are shown as credits on the student's account, unless the student requests a check for the amount of the refund. Students who are due a refund because of direct overpayment or as a result of a reduction in course load must request that refund. Refund requests should be addressed to the Student Accounts Office, Tyler Hall. Refunds are processed after the last day of registration. The processing requires two to four weeks.

Billing

The University sends monthly statements to students who have an outstanding balance or who have had activity on their accounts during the statement period. The statement will show the balance brought forward and the activity of the previous month. The statements are sent to the student at his/her permanent address.

Students are responsible for advising the University of a change of address. This may be done at the Registrar's Office or by clicking on the student profile tab of the web registration module.

Questions pertaining to bills should be directed to Student Accounts, Tyler Hall, (919) 546-8228.

Delinquent Accounts

The University will not issue a degree, transcript, or grade report to any student who has a delinquent account. A student with a delinquent account will not be readmitted to the University until all unpaid balances are paid.

Past due accounts are referred to a collection agency and may negatively impact the student's credit record. Each past due account may also be charged an additional amount which shall approximate the administrative cost incurred in collecting the past due amount, in addition to any attorney fees and reasonable collection costs incurred for collection of the past-due amount.

FINANCIAL AID

Financial aid at Shaw University consists of scholarships, grants, and loans awarded singly or in the form of a "package" to meet a student's financial need. The factor of need is considered for all forms of financial assistance. The financial aid program is designed to provide financial assistance to qualified and deserving students who, without it, would not be able to attend or remain in school.

A student must be enrolled as at least a half-time matriculated student and must be in good academic standing to be eligible for financial assistance. However, certain programs require a student to maintain a full-time status.
Financial aid is awarded for one-year only, upon reapplication and continued eligibility. The priority deadline for applying for Shaw University administrated financial aid is March 1 for the ensuing academic year.

An entering student must be accepted for admission before receiving an award letter regarding financial aid. An award notification for applicants who have met the March 1 priority deadline is normally mailed to the applicant by June 1.

Questions pertaining to financial aid should be directed to the Financial Aid Office, Tyler Hall (919) 546-8303 or (800) 475-6190.

Sources of Financial Aid

Financial assistance is provided through anyone or a combination of the following:

* Federal Direct Stafford Loan (formerly the Guaranteed Student Loan Program -GSL). The Federal Direct Stafford Loan is a low-interest loan made to eligible students by the Department of Education. This loan is made for the purpose of helping a student meet his/her educational expense. Interest is deferred on the principal of the loan during the student's enrollment period. Students who demonstrate need may borrow up to $8,500. Repayment begins six months after graduation or after the student ceases to be enrolled on at least a half-time basis.

* Federal Direct Unsubsidized Federal Stafford Loans. These are Stafford Loans that are not based on need. The borrower is responsible for paying the interest during in-school and deferment periods. However, the borrower may defer the interest while enrolled. A graduate student may borrow up to $10,000 per year in unsubsidized loans.

Withdrawals, Incompletes, and Repeats

Withdrawals, incompletes, and repeats will not be exempt from the calculation of semesters in attendance.

Termination of Financial Aid Eligibility

Continuing students applying for financial aid will be evaluated at least once each academic year (normally at the end of the spring semester) to determine if they have met the university's standards of satisfactory academic progress for financial aid eligibility and if they have exceeded the permitted number of attempted hours. Students who fail to attain either 1) the minimum required cumulative GPA or 2) the minimum required number of earned hours are considered to be making unsatisfactory progress and will be ineligible to receive financial aid funds. The first time a student fails to meet the satisfactory progress standard, he or she receives a notice from the University, and is put on academic probation for two terms or payment periods. The student can receive aid during these periods, but is not allowed to enroll for more than nine hours. If the student does not meet the satisfactory progress standard at the end of the probationary term, he or she loses eligibility for any subsequent payments, until he or she meets the satisfactory progress standards again. Students on probation will be monitored every semester for improvement and with the terms of their probation. Students who fail to meet the requirements by the end of their satisfactory academic progress probation period will lose eligibility for all financial aid programs.
Reinstatement of Financial Aid Eligibility

Financial aid applicants whose financial aid has been suspended may regain eligibility once they meet the minimum requirements. A reinstatement of eligibility, however, does not necessarily guarantee that the student will be awarded financial aid for the following semester. Awards are made on the basis of several factors in addition to satisfactory academic progress, including the availability of funds, individual program requirements, and financial need.

Appeal of Eligibility Termination

Students whose financial aid has been terminated because of failure to meet the standards of satisfactory academic progress may make a formal appeal of that decision. Circumstances which may be considered in this appeal include the following: death in the student's immediate family, medical emergencies, accidents, personal tragedy, or other documented circumstances beyond the student's control which prevented him/her from meeting the minimum standards.

Appeals of eligibility termination are not permitted from students who have exceeded the maximum number of attempted hours, including transfer hours.

Appeal Procedures

To appeal the termination of financial aid eligibility, a student must follow the procedures outlined below.

1. A request must be submitted by the student, in writing, to the Director of Financial Aid within ten (10) working days of receipt of denial/cancellation of financial aid on the basis of unsatisfactory academic progress.

2. The circumstances that prevented satisfactory academic progress must be clearly stated and documented.

3. The request must include documentation to support the exceptional circumstances. Examples of acceptable documentation include, but are not limited to: death certificates, statements from physician(s), clergy, or other verifiable information.

4. The Financial Aid Office will review the appeal and determine if a financial aid award is justified. The student will receive a letter indicating approval or denial of the appeal.
STUDENT LIFE

Food Service
Students may eat meals in the Shaw University Cafeteria at rates established by the University and during designated meal hours. Shaw University is also in proximity of fast food restaurants and off-campus cafes. Students have the option to purchase a meal package if they choose to do so.

Housing
Housing is available on campus for graduate students at the regular rate set by the University. Incoming students will be sent information regarding the process for obtaining housing.

Health Services
The Health Services Center is located on the first floor of the Main Men's Dormitory. The hours of operation are Monday-Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. A school nurse is available to serve students during the stated hours of operation.

The University Counseling Center is located on the second floor of the Willie E. Gary Student Union Building. The Center is open Monday, Tuesday and Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and on Wednesday and Thursday from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Students are encouraged to visit the counseling center and make use of it as the need arises.

Bookstore
Required textbooks and parallel readings as well as other books are available through the campus bookstore.

Statement of Equal Educational Opportunity and Nondiscrimination
Students are admitted to the graduate programs without regard to gender, race, color, age, national or ethnic origin, provided they meet basic requirements for admission. All students admitted have equal access to the rights, privileges, programs, activities, and student financial aid afforded by Shaw University and is governed without discrimination by its established policies and procedures.

Veterans Certificate of Eligibility
Shaw University is approved to enroll veterans. Those who desire to enroll and use their educational benefits should initiate procedures with the Veterans Administration. Shaw University Veteran Affairs office will certify those who have earned this entitlement.

Graduate Division

Master of Science in Curriculum and Instruction
Concentration: Early Childhood Education

Dr. Joan Barrax, Dean
Dr. Deloris Jerman, Assistant Dean and Graduate Coordinator
Telephone: (919) 546-8530
Fax: (919) 546-8531
Email: djerman@shawu.edu

Introduction

The Master of Science program in Curriculum and Instruction with a concentration in Early Childhood Education requires the equivalent of four semesters of full-time study. However, students are expected to attend part-time, as they are practicing teachers. Students must complete a minimum of 36 semester hours of course work and three hours of thesis. This graduate-level program is open only to graduate students. The primary target audience will be public school teachers in Central and Eastern North Carolina who are in the initial stage of licensure. Other candidates who meet the admission requirements may be considered for admission.

The Training Model

The instructional delivery method will consist of the traditional Socratic lecture method as well as the cooperative group-oriented case analysis method. Students will be engaged in field-based action research projects and activities that support community service and other scholarly pursuits. Additionally, students will complete a quantitative research project in all courses. Instructional activities will be research-based and infused with technology.

Application to the Master of Science Program

Only the official application forms should be used in applying to the Master of Science degree program in Curriculum and Instruction. Admission to graduate study can be authorized only by the Dean and the Graduate Program Coordinator. The prospective student must hold the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science from an accredited college or university in the United States or its equivalent-based on a four-year curriculum-in an institution outside of the United States. Admission is competitive and students are selected on the basis of their preparation, experiences, and intellectual and leadership abilities.

Types of Admission

Unconditional Admission

In order to obtain unconditional admission, the applicant must meet or exceed the following criteria:

1. An undergraduate grade point average of 3.0 (B) minimum from an accredited institution, or an undergraduate grade point average of 2.75 minimum from an accredited institution and a graduate degree in a related discipline from an accredited institution.
2. A minimum of two years of documented relevant educational or professional experiences.

3. A valid teaching credential issued by a Department of Public Instruction in the United States.

   *If a student is admitted without a valid teaching credential, he or she will be required to take a diagnostic examination as a part of the admission process. The examination results will have an impact on the final admission decision.

4. Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores on the aptitude section that are acceptable to the Graduate Admissions Committee. *GRE scores must not be more than five years old.

5. Proficiency in written and spoken English demonstrated in a written goals statement and a successful interview with the Graduate Admissions Committee.

6. A TOEFL score (subject to change) of at least 500 on the paper-based test or at least 173 on the computer-based test, if the applicant is an international student. *TOEFL scores must not be more than two years old.

Conditional Admission

Conditional admission may be granted for those applicants who do not satisfy all of the requirements for unconditional admission. Final disposition of cases involving students who have been admitted on condition rests with the Graduate Admissions Committee (consisting of graduate faculty) and the Dean.

Re-Admission

A student who discontinues matriculation in the graduate degree program for one or more semesters must apply for re-admission. The evaluation of applications for re-admission will be based on University and specific program requirements in existence at the time of the re-admission application.

Transfer Credits

Course work accepted for credit toward the Master of Science in Curriculum and Instruction with a concentration in Early Childhood Education must represent graduate course work relevant to the degree, with course content and level of instruction resulting in student competencies at least equivalent to those of students enrolled in Shaw University’s Master of Science in Curriculum and Instruction degree program.

Graduate credit is not awarded for portfolio-based experiential learning which occurred prior to matriculation into the Master of Science degree program in Curriculum and Instruction with a concentration in Early Childhood Education and which was not supervised by a Shaw University graduate program faculty member.

Transfer credits from other institutions must be evaluated and approved by the student's advisor and the Graduate Coordinator. Transfer credits must be earned from a regionally accredited institution. Courses that are more than three years old or that have grades lower than "B" will not be accepted. Up to six credit hours may be transferred.
Special Requirements for International Applicants

Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)

Applicants whose native language is not English and who have not received their education at an English-speaking university must submit scores on the TOEFL. TOEFL scores more than two years old are not accepted. The required minimum total score (subject to change) on the TOEFL test is 500 for the paper-based test or 173 for the computer-based test.

Since four to six weeks are required for scores to reach the University, applicants should take the test no later than the middle of January (fall admission), June (spring admission), or October (summer admission) in order for scores to arrive in our office by the deadline.

When applicants register for the test, they should request that their scores be sent to Shaw University (R5612). If this isn’t done initially, send a written request to the address given here. Address inquiries and requests for applications to TOEFL, CB6151, Princeton, New Jersey 08541-6151. In addition to the TOEFL, the Graduate Record Examination is required of all international applicants.

Document Identification

Applicants must make certain that their name appears exactly the same on the application and on all supporting documents.

Transcripts

International student applicants must supply official transcripts or comparable academic records from all colleges and universities attended. A notarized English translation must be provided.

Acceptable Licensure Areas

Applicants applying for admission into the graduate program should be licensed in one of the following areas: birth through kindergarten, elementary education, or special education. Social work, psychology or sociology majors may also be accepted. Other applicants who show demonstrated experience/accomplishments in the field of early childhood education and who meet the requirements for admission may be considered for admission and will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Undergraduate Preparation

The Master of Science in Curriculum and Instruction with a concentration in Early Childhood Education is designed for early childhood educators who work directly with young children in a variety of early childhood settings, who must accommodate children with a range of abilities and special needs, and who must work collaboratively with families and other professionals.

All regularly admitted students are expected to have an undergraduate major consisting of at least 30 semester hours of course work in early childhood education and at least two years of documented relevant educational or professional experience. They are practicing teachers in public and private early childhood education settings, including the public schools, centers, and home-based programs.
However, applicants who are licensed in other areas of education, such as special education and elementary education and who have a minimum of two years of documented relevant educational or professional experience may also be considered for admission. Relevant educational or professional experience includes such experiences as public school teaching in another field (e.g., special education).

Applicants who are non-education majors and who have a minimum of two years of documented relevant educational or professional experience (private schools, centers, and home-based programs) are required to take a diagnostic examination as part of the admission process. The examination results will have an impact on the final admission decision. Non-education majors who are accepted into the graduate program will be required to take two preconditions or graduate support courses.

EDU 318 Graduate Support-Educational Research (3)
   The broad goal of this course is to help the graduate student in education learn the essentials needed to carry out the research process. Teachers will be expected to learn to use the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA style) in writing a research paper.

EDU 319 Graduate Support-Problems in Early Childhood Education (3)
   This course will address issues and trends in early childhood education, including diversity, developmentally appropriate practice, the use of instructional technology, and teaching in inclusive settings.

Application Deadline

The Department will begin processing applications and making admission decisions as applications are returned. Applicants are urged to apply early due to the limited number of openings each year. See page five for application deadlines.

Instructions for Completing the Application

Please remove all the application materials from the packet. Complete the forms carefully, using a typewriter or printing clearly in black or blue ink. Please check to make sure that all areas are complete. If a mistake is made, make corrections as legibly as possible.

Application Fee

A non-refundable $50.00 fee must accompany all applications. Certified check or money order should be made payable to Shaw University. MasterCard and VISA are accepted. Personal checks are not accepted.

Letters of Recommendation

Two letters of recommendations must be submitted from persons who know the applicant's academic and professional qualifications well. One professional reference must be from a present or former supervisor.

Transcripts

One official transcript of all post-secondary work (bearing the signature of the registrar and the seal of the institution) should be sent to the Graduate Program Coordinator.
Graduate Record Examination (GRE) Scores

Scores on the GRE are required as part of the application to the Graduate School. Dates for administration of the GRE during the academic year are usually in October, December, April, and June. Four to six weeks are usually required for test scores to reach us. GRE scores more than five years old are not accepted.

If an applicant did not specify at the time of taking the GRE that Shaw University was to receive his/her scores, the Educational Testing Service should be asked in writing to send the GRE scores to Shaw University (ETS Institutional Code R5612). If scores will not arrive by the application deadline, please send us one photocopy of the student score report, which will be used until an official report arrives. Registration forms for the GRE may be obtained by writing to Graduate Record Examinations, Educational Testing Service (ETS), CB6000, Princeton, NJ 08541-6000.

Goals Statement

Each applicant must submit a one-page statement presenting his/her reasons for pursuing the Master of Science degree in Curriculum and Instruction with a concentration in Early Childhood Education and any other information concerning the applicant’s background and plans that may be helpful in considering the application.

Financial Assistance

To apply for aid, a student should submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), listing Shaw University in item 32 as one of the schools to receive information from the processing agency. The FAFSA may be accessed online or obtained from any college financial aid office. An aid applicant must also provide a Financial Aid Transcript, completed by the financial aid office at each college or university the student has previously attended. The form is available in the Office of Financial Aid and may be duplicated as needed for several schools. Priority consideration is given to students who submit the FAFSA by the application deadline for the summer session or semester for which aid is requested. Applications filed after the deadlines will be processed as time and funds permit.

For detailed information on financial aid, see pages 7-9.

Time Limitation and Residency

A master's degree student has five years to complete his or her degree. There is no special requirement concerning residency.

Degree Requirements

The Master of Science Degree in Curriculum and Instruction with a concentration in Early Childhood Education requires a minimum of 39 credit hours, including a thesis. All students must complete the following requirements to earn the degree.

1. Achieve unconditional admission status.
2. File a degree plan with the Graduate Coordinator.
3. Pass a comprehensive examination.
4. Earn a grade point average of 3.0 or better.

5. Complete a Practicum/Internship.

6. Write and successfully defend a thesis.

7. Present a passing score (North Carolina criteria) on the Praxis II (specialty exam).
   (Currently, North Carolina does not require a PRAXIS II test for Birth through Kindergarten. If the PRAXIS II test becomes a requirement in North Carolina, the degree program will also require it.)

The distribution of required course credit hours are:

1. 18 credit hours of core courses
   - ECI 640: Historical, Philosophical, and Social Foundations of American Education or
   - EC1643: Social and Political Problems in Education
   - ECI 610: Psychological Foundations of Education or
   - ECI 611: Advanced Studies in Human Development and Learning (specialty area specific)
   - ECI 691: Advanced Statistical Methods in Education
   - ECI 692: The Design of Educational Research and Evaluation
   - Eel 599: Instructional Leadership Practicum
   - EC1698: Thesis Conference (0 credit hours)
   - EC1700: Thesis

2. 18 credit hours in the specialty area concentration
   - ECI 612: Working with Young Children and Their Families
   - EC1 634: Multicultural Education: Planning and Implementing Instruction for Diverse Learners
   - EC1625: Advanced Study of Literacy and Numeracy for Young Children
   - ECI 677: Instructional Leadership in Early Childhood Education

3. 3 credit hours of supportive electives (selected from the following courses):
   - EC1601: Creating Learning Environments for Young Children
   - ECI 670: Administration of Child Development Centers
   - EC1 615: Advanced Studies in the Fine Arts
   - ECI 693: Advanced Theory and Design of Tests and Measurements
   - ECI 605: Play and Young Children's Learning

Standards for Satisfactory Academic Progress

Students must maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.0 to be in satisfactory academic standing.

Students must have completed all course work for the graduate degree except ECI 700: Thesis before applying for candidacy.
The Grading System
Grades are based on a four-point scale as follows: A = 4; B = 3; C = 2; D = 1.
   A = 90-100 (Target)
   B = 80-89 (Acceptable)
   C = 70-79 (Acceptable)
   D = 60-69 (Unacceptable)
   F = Below 60 (Unacceptable - failing)
   I = Incomplete

Common rubrics to assess student performance on assignments are used. Performance at target, acceptable, and unacceptable levels are assessed for such assignments as abstracts, research paper, essay exam, demonstration teaching, microteaching, unit plan, reflective paper, oral report, developmental electronic portfolio, lesson plan, internship, field lab, case study, and technology infusion. These rubrics are included as part of course syllabi, but may be issued under separate cover.

Academic Advising
At the outset, the advisor for students in the Master of Science degree program in Curriculum and Instruction will be the Graduate Program Coordinator. As the program grows, students will be assigned to graduate faculty advisors alphabetically to assure a relatively even advisee load and quality of student advisement. The Graduate Program Coordinator will monitor students' academic progress through a program checklist, advisement at registration periods, and a review of students' transcripts each semester. Graduate faculty will be appointed by the Dean to serve on students' graduate committees.

Academic Probation
Students on academic probation are those who fail to maintain the required 3.0 grade point average. They may remain on academic probation for one semester. At the end of the semester that a student is on academic probation, the student's enrollment status will be evaluated by the Dean and Graduate Program Coordinator.

Repeating a Course
A student cannot receive credit twice for the same course that is repeated. If a course is repeated in which credit hours are earned, the student's permanent record will be adjusted by subtracting the hours of the lower grade from the total hours earned. Credit hours will then be recorded only for the higher grade. Students are responsible for notifying the Office of Records and Registration, via the appropriate space on the registration form, regarding which course is being repeated. Only the new grade/quality points will be used to factor the resulting cumulative GPA. The previous grade, e.g., "F" (0), will be deleted as a factor and the new grade, e.g., "B" (3), will be used—thus increasing the cumulative GPA.

The Grade of "Incomplete"
The Incomplete ("I") grade is given as a final grade but not as a permanent grade. The "I" is assigned when the student, as a result of illness, an unusual or mitigating situation or some other acceptable circumstance beyond the student's control, has not completed the work of the course, provided the student is otherwise passing.
All Incompletes must be removed by the end of the next semester in which the student is enrolled—except by approved extension of time. If the Incomplete is not removed within one calendar year, the un-removed "I" converts to a grade of "F". The deadline for the removal of Incompletes is announced in the academic calendar, for the convenience of faculty members and students.

The Incomplete is a non-punitive grade that is not included in the computation of semester and cumulative averages. A special form for the removal of Incomplete grades can be obtained from the Office of the Director of Records and Registration.

Withdrawal from Courses

All changes in course schedules after the close of registration require the signatures of the instructors involved, the student's advisor, and the Dean. The form may be obtained from the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies, and it must be delivered to the Office of Records and Registration. A student who stops attending a course without properly notifying the instructor, the Dean and the Registrar may receive a grade of "NR" in the course. If a student drops a course before the last day of classes for the semester but remains registered for other academic work, the courses dropped will be awarded a grade of "W."

Withdrawal Policy From the University

Students at the graduate school level must request withdrawal from the University through the Dean of the College of Graduate and Professional Studies. Student fees are adjusted for any withdrawal, based on the University's regular policy governing refunds.

Thesis

Each candidate for the Master's degree must submit an acceptable thesis. Credit equal to that of one full course (three semester hours) will be granted when a thesis is accepted and successfully defended. It is expected that candidates will register for ECI 698: Thesis Conference while working on the thesis and register for ECI 700: Thesis only during the semester in which the thesis will be defended. However, a student may enroll in an additional three hours, if necessary, to complete the thesis.

The Graduate Council must approve thesis proposals. The completed thesis is defended orally before the thesis committee.

The preparation of the thesis is a research experience. It should show the capacity of the student, under guidance, to accomplish independent investigation, and it must demonstrate mastery of the technique of research. It is not expected or required that the thesis shall, in every case, be an original contribution to knowledge. The student, in the preparation of the thesis, is concerned with the materials of knowledge and the evidential basis on which the knowledge rests.

The original and three copies of the thesis must be inspected in the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies for compliance with the requirements of form and style. The documents then must be deposited in the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies not later than the date specified in the academic calendar. All requirements, including the written examinations, the thesis, and the oral examination must be completed by the dates listed in the academic calendar for a student to receive his/her degree during the desired semester.
Research Using Human Subjects

Shaw University has established an Institutional Review Board (IRE). The function of the IRE is to review projects and activities that involve human subjects. The IRB determines for each activity planned and conducted if subjects will be placed at risk. Shaw University is in the process of developing a policy for research using human subjects.

Course Descriptions

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION
CONCENTRATION: EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

ECI 599 Instructional Leadership Practicum (3). This required internship provides experience for practicing teachers to conduct observations and fieldwork in early childhood education settings. Individual placements will be dependent on the focus and needs of the candidates and will include opportunities to observe young children in multiple settings and with varying ability levels. Instructional leadership within the changing context of the American school and society is emphasized. Theory into practice is the primary objective of the practicum, and various didactic schemes are employed to ensure this occurrence. Meta-analysis of research will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 601 Creating Learning Environments for Young Children (3). Designed for practicing teachers, this course provides a comprehensive examination of curriculum development methods in quality early childhood education settings. An evaluation of existing and proposed early childhood education programs and their effectiveness for the teacher and students will be pursued. Developing a safe, orderly, and healthy classroom climate that maximizes learning and minimizes discipline problems is also studied. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 605 Play and Young Children's Learning (3). Teachers will develop understanding and appreciation of the nature of play in humankind, and of the relationship of play to humanity's artistic endeavor, invention, and problem-solving, and will look at play from historical and anthropological points of view. Emphasis will be placed on the stages of play in young children and on the intimate relationship between play and young children's cognitive and affective development. Candidates will make practical application to their own curriculum for children. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 610 Psychological Foundations of Education (3). This course presents an advanced study of the analysis of factors influencing learning and teaching, including the attitudinal, motivational, and other characteristics of the learner and the teacher. Special emphasis will be given to personality factors of the teacher as instructional leader and the interaction experiences between the teacher and the students. This course relates current evidence to controversial school issues. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 611 Advanced Studies in Human Development and Learning (3). This course provides a comprehensive review and analysis of research on the developing person from birth to age six. Candidates will examine extreme theoretical perspectives as well as more balanced versions of human development and their effect upon research applications. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 612 Working with Young Children and Their Families (3). An examination of the principles and practices of parenting education in terms of research, program implementation, evaluation, and collaboration are studied in this course. There is also an in-depth study of developmental designs, supportive programs, programs designed to prevent problems, and programs and organizations that are sensitive to parent needs and interests. Emphasis is placed on the process of parent involvement, communication, and collaborative leadership. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 615 Advanced Studies in the Fine Arts (3). This course is designed for practicing teachers and provides advanced study in the methods and materials of teaching the visual arts and music and how they can be integrated across content areas. Emphasis is placed on instructing teachers in satisfying the emotional and aesthetic needs of children through the arts. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 625 Advanced Study of Literacy and Numeracy for Young Children (3) The development of literacy and mathematical understanding in the home and pre-school settings from birth through kindergarten are explored. Language and cognitive development theories and research are linked to home and classroom experiences that enhance literacy and mathematical understanding through developmentally appropriate practice. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 630 Assessment: Measuring and Evaluating Learning in the Early Childhood Curriculum (3). This course enhances candidates’ ability/skills to observe, evaluate, and guide young children's growth while further developing their skill in informal observation techniques. Candidates will learn about their students from new perspectives, thereby recognizing and meeting the typical and atypical developmental needs of children. Evaluation procedures will help account for children's psychological and social growth while creating classroom conditions to maximize this growth. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 634 Multicultural Education: Planning and Implementing Instruction for Diverse Learners (3). The course addresses the origins, concepts, trends and principles of multicultural education, equity, and the conceptual framework on cultural diversity in relation to education. It also enhances teachers' ability to use a critical thinking/problem-solving approach to dialogue as an effective method of teaching diversity across the curriculum. Inclusive early childhood curricula and instructional strategies for working with children with typical and atypical developmental needs are emphasized. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 640 Historical, Philosophical, and Social Foundations of American Education (3). This course provides advanced study of the historical, philosophical, and social foundations of education. Students are provided opportunities to build upon their current knowledge of the major historical events and philosophies that have influenced educational thought and practice in America, the ways in which student characteristics are influenced by societal conditions, and the ways in which factors external to the school system influence the school. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 643 Social and Political Problems in Education (3). This course is an in-depth examination of the theoretical and conceptual basis of politics and public policy in education and its relationship to successful instructional leadership. It also explores the school class as a social system-a social environment and a complex organization. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 670 Administration of Child Development Centers (3). This course is an analysis of the various leadership theories with a major focus on situational leadership and leadership styles. The course explores and tests (through field-based clinical activities) leadership skills necessary for effective day care school oversight. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 677 Instructional Leadership in Early Childhood Education (3). The course presents an examination of instructional leadership theories and principles as they relate to educational leadership roles of teachers in public and private early childhood educational settings. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 690 Interagency Collaboration: Effective Practices for Teaching, Learning, and Collaborative Leadership (3). This course emphasizes communication, home-school partnerships, family dynamics, community-school relationships, and agencies that provide services to young children and their families. Meta-analysis of research is pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 691 Advanced Statistical Methods in Education (3). This is a required graduate-level course in statistics and applications to education and the behavioral sciences. Topics considered in this course include basic data tabulation, descriptive statistics (both measures of central tendency as well as measures of variability), correlation, normal probability curve, and inferential statistics (t-tests, analysis of variance, multiple regression, factor analysis, and non-parametric statistics). Experiences with computerized statistical analysis will be provided. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 692 The Design of Educational Research and Evaluation (3). This required graduate-level course provides the graduate student in education with a strong foundation in research and evaluation methodology. Included will be sources of educational research and types of educational research and evaluation studies. Students will consider the scientific method as a basis of research as applied to the investigation of problems in education. Different types of research and evaluation methods such as experimental, survey, descriptive, and qualitative techniques will be studied. The course is WEB enhanced. Prerequisite: ECI 691 or an equivalent graduate-level statistics class.

ECI 693 Advanced Theory and Design of Tests and Measurements (3). The theory and design of tests and measurements used in education and related studies are the focal points of this course. In addition, test administration, with particular attention to intelligence, aptitude, achievement, interest, and other psychological and diagnostic instruments, will be studied. The establishment of criteria for test construction, selection, and use will be included. Interpretation of test data will be undertaken. Meta-analysis of research data will be pursued. The course is WEB enhanced.

ECI 698 Thesis Conference (0). This course is to be taken by students who are working on their thesis but do not expect to complete and defend the work during the same semester.
Students must register for this course each semester after admission to candidacy up to the semester before they defend the thesis. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; passing written and oral examinations.

ECI 700 Thesis (1-6). The student registers for this course only for the semester during which the thesis will be completed and defended. A student who is conducting research work on the thesis, but will not complete and defend the thesis during the semester, must continuously register for ECI 698 until the thesis is completed.
Mission
Shaw University Divinity School provides theological education dedicated to the preparation of clergy and laity for clinical, pastoral, and teaching/research ministry professions. The Divinity School is committed to the development of a research institute whose focus is leadership in the "practice of ministry" in the African American community, particularly in the African American Church.

History
Following a reorganization of Shaw University in 1919, a Missionary Training School was established to prepare home and foreign missionaries, social service workers, clergy and lay church leaders. The Theological Department, as it was then called, also continued to provide basic ministerial training through a Bachelor of Theology Program until 1933. On April 15, 1933, the Board of Trustees of Shaw University established the School of Religion as a graduate school for theological education.

In 1961 the School of Religion became Shaw Divinity School, offering the Bachelor of Divinity (BD) degree. From its beginning, Shaw Divinity School functioned as a quasi-autonomous body under the direction of the Shaw University Board of Trustees. In 1969 the Shaw Divinity School was chartered as a non-stock, non-profit corporation by the Office of the Secretary of the State of North Carolina. The BD degree was discontinued and the Master of Divinity degree (MDiv) was offered. The three-year MDiv program offered a graduate/professional degree focused on training students for ministry primarily in African American communities.

In February of 1988, the Shaw Divinity School moved from the campus of Shaw University to a new three and a half acre site at 509 Hilltop Drive in southeast Raleigh, North Carolina. The Hilltop campus became the central location for the Divinity School, providing space for administrative offices, the library and classrooms. G. Franklin Wiggins, an alumnus of Shaw University and Shaw Divinity School and a trustee of the Divinity School, along with his wife, Ida Wiggins of Peekskill, New York, purchased the Hilltop campus and leased it to Shaw Divinity School with first option to buy. The Hilltop campus was eventually named the "The Shaw-Wiggins Campus."

Between 1998 and 2002, several significant events occurred in the history of the Shaw Divinity School. In the summer of 1998, Shaw Divinity School merged with Shaw University. Under the merger, Shaw Divinity School became Shaw University Divinity School. Following the merger, the Divinity School was accredited by the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) in the United States and Canada and by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; Telephone number 404-679-4501) as the graduate school of Shaw University.

In 1999, Shaw University Divinity School relocated to the main campus of Shaw University. The Divinity School was housed in the historic Estey Building. In November 2000, the Shaw University Divinity School relocated to the historic and restored Leonard Building. In 2002 a second degree, the Master of Religious Education degree, was approved by both SACS and ATS and was offered beginning in the fall of 2002.

Building on a tradition of quality, excellence, and relevance in theological education, The Shaw University Divinity School has emerged as a leader in theological education for the African American community.

Location

The Shaw University Divinity School is located on Shaw University’s main campus in Raleigh, NC. An off-campus site is located in Winston-Salem, NC at the Mount Zion Baptist Church. The address of that location is 950 File Street, Northeast, Winston-Salem, NC 27101. The telephone number is (336) 722-2325.

Accreditation

Shaw University Divinity School is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS) (10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15275-1103: Telephone number 412-788-6505) and by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; Telephone number 404-679-4501) to award the master of divinity degree and the master of religious education degree.

Admissions Procedures

Persons are admitted into the graduate program during the fall and spring semesters and must possess the Bachelors degree. Former students who have not matriculated within a two-year period must reapply for admission.

Persons desiring admission to the Shaw University Divinity School should request the Shaw University Graduate School Application for Admission Form from:

The Shaw University Divinity School
118 E. South Street
Raleigh, North Carolina 27601    (919) 546-8569 or 8570

The completed Graduate Application for Admission should be returned to Shaw University Divinity School at the above address along with a $50.00 application fee.

Potential students are responsible for the following items to complete the application:

1. Request an official transcript from their college
2. Complete a two-page essay
3. Request two people to complete letters of reference
4. Have their physician complete a health form.
Application Deadlines

Students desiring to enroll for the fall semester should apply by July 15th. students desiring to enroll for the spring semester should apply by November 15th; and students desiring to enroll for the summer semester should apply by April 15th.

Every candidate for the Master of Divinity degree is required to complete a total of 90 semester hours of credit. Twenty-one (21) required courses (63 hours) and nine (9) electives (27 hours) are required to complete the requirements for the Master of Divinity degree.

Students may take a maximum of three courses on Saturday and may take additional courses during the week. It is strongly recommended that full-time pastors or bi-vocational students who are employed 35 or more hours per week limit their course load to three courses or nine hours per semester. Any decision to do otherwise must be approved by the Dean.

Categories of Admission

The three categories in which students are admitted to Shaw University Divinity School include:

1. Matriculation - Persons who are admitted into the degree program.
2. Non-matriculation - Persons who are admitted as special students. These persons are not seeking a degree but only interested in taking one or two courses.
3. Audit - Persons who desire to observe a class but not required to complete assignments. Persons are required to pay an audit fee but will not receive credit for the course. These persons will not be able to request a transcript for the course because no grade will be issued.

Advanced Standing in the Graduate Program

Students entering the graduate program at Shaw University Divinity School are required to possess the baccalaureate degree. While most entering students start as juniors, some students are admitted with advanced standings. Advanced standing is defined as students who are allowed to graduate by earning less than the 90 credits required for the MDiv degree at Shaw University Divinity School. Advanced standing can be achieved through assessment or through transfer of credits from another Association of Theological Schools (ATS). Even with advanced standing, a minimum of forty-five semester credits must be earned at Shaw University Divinity School to receive the MDiv degree.

Advanced Standing Through Assessment

Shaw University Divinity School will admit graduate students with advanced standing on the basis of their competence when no transcript of graduate credit is presented. SUDS will determine by appropriate written and/or oral assessment that students have the knowledge, competence, or skills that would normally be provided by the specific courses for which the student has been admitted with advanced standing. The Admissions Committee of the SUDS faculty will determine whether to admit advanced standing without credit or with credit. In either case, the Admissions Committee will review the candidate's application and make a recommendation to the Dean. The Dean of the Divinity School will make the final decision.
Advanced Standing through Transfer of Credits

SUDS will accept transfer credits for work completed at any ATS accredited theological schools. All transfer credits must be eligible for graduate credits in the institution at which they were taken and must be a grade of "C" or better.

Shared Credit in Degree Programs

SUDS will allow graduate credits applied toward other graduate degrees to be transferred to the MDiv degree program. Not more than half of the credits required for the other degree may be transferred into the MDiv program, and not more than half of the credits required by the MDiv degree may be granted on the basis of "shared" credits.

Student Classification

Student Classifications are based upon the number of credits accumulated as follows:

- Junior: less than 30 credits
- Middle: 30 - 60 credits
- Senior: 61 credits or more.

Withdrawals

Any student desiring to withdraw from the Divinity School must adhere to the University withdrawal policy by completing a withdrawal form with appropriate signatures and returning it to the Dean's Office. If the student fails to comply with this regulation, the student forfeits the right to any tuition refund. Students are to abide by the time frame specified for withdrawal on the school calendar. Withdrawal forms are available at the Counseling Center.

Absences

Divinity school students are expected to attend class regularly and on-time. Students are expected to arrange planned absences from class with the professor. Each professor is responsible for informing his or her students of the absentee policy for their classrooms and enforcing the policy.

Tardiness

Students are expected to be on time. Penalties for tardiness are imposed at the discretion of the professor, subject to the Dean's approval when appropriate.

Dismissals

Any divinity school student whose behavior is deemed negative to the point that he/she can no longer benefit from the educational programs and services provided by Shaw University Divinity School is subject to dismissal. Dismissal may also result if a determination is made that the student poses too great a threat to the learning experiences of other students or to the well being of the institution. Readmission will not be considered until at least one full semester has passed and the student gives adequate evidence of having made changes in his/her situation so as to justify readmission.
Academic Probation
Students whose cumulative grade point average drops below C will be placed on academic probation. Students whose cumulative average does not reach the C average two semesters after having been placed on academic probation may have their study program temporarily suspended or terminated. Readmission will not be considered until at least one full semester has passed and the student gives adequate evidence of having made changes in his/her situation so as to justify readmission. Students readmitted will automatically be on academic probation during the first semester.

The Grading System
Scale 4.0 Grade Symbols

A=4, B=3, C=2, D=1.

Elaboration on Grading Symbols

D
The letter grade D is passing, but reflects below average work and is not acceptable at the graduate level. However, as each D grade is the result of course work attempted, it is computed in the cumulative hour and grade point average. Students receiving a grade of D in a required graduate level course will be required to repeat the course until a grade of A, B, or C is achieved. In addition, a grade of D is not accepted in a transfer situation.

F
The letter grade F denotes failure in a course and no credit is earned. However, as each F grade is the result of course work attempted, it is computed in the cumulative hour and grade point average. Any F grade in a required course must be re-taken until a passing grade of A, B, or C is achieved.

W
The letter symbol W indicates that a student officially withdrew before an assessment of his academic performance could be made.

I
The I grade is awarded at the discretion of the instructor when a student is unable to complete required work because of an unavoidable circumstance such as illness. The I must be removed by the end of the following semester. If it is not removed, the grade will automatically become a failing grade (F) and the student will need to repeat the course.
Records

Records of a graduate student's academic progress are maintained in the Office of Records and Registration and are furnished to the student upon request. There is a fee of $4.00 for an official transcript.

Records of a continuing education student's academic progress are maintained in the Shaw University Divinity School Office of Continuing Education.

Student Advisement and Counseling

Students will be assigned an advisor/mentor to guide them throughout their degree program. Students are encouraged to seek advisement regarding their programs, class schedules, and other needs from their assigned advisors. Students are required to get approval of their advisor at registration.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY

1. Students must be in good academic standing with Shaw University Divinity School (SUDS), according to the criteria published in the catalog.

2. Students who receive financial aid are required to successfully complete all courses with a grade of C or better. Students taking 9 credits or more are considered full time; less than 9 credit hours is considered part-time.

3. Shaw University Divinity School considers an academic year to be its unit for measuring satisfactory progress.

4. Students denied financial aid because of failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress may enroll for courses at their expense in order to meet the Divinity School standards of satisfactory eligibility for financial aid. Upon review of satisfactory completion, additional aid may be received.

5. A student who has been denied financial aid may appeal in writing to the Director of Financial Aid. A written response will be sent to the student.

Policy Statement

Shaw University Divinity School is committed to a high standard of theological education and preparation for ministry. Through the financial aid program, Shaw University assists students who demonstrate need in their preparation for Christian ministry by providing assistance regardless of race, ethnic origin, gender, handicap, or denominational affiliation.
MASTER OF DIVINITY PROGRAM

The Master of Divinity program is a graduate program in theological education. It is designed for students who aspire to achieve a high level of competence in theological education and ministry. The Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university is required for admission to the program. Conferring of the degree is contingent upon the successful completion of 90 semester hours.

Master of Divinity (MDIV) Degree with Concentrations

Students enrolled in the MDIV program may seek concentrations in seven disciplines: Pastoral Counseling, Biblical Studies - OTS or NTS, Theology, Women's Studies, Church History, Christian Education, Black Church Studies, and Homiletics. The Master of Divinity degree with a concentration requires at least six electives in the discipline chosen. Advisors will assist students with course selection in their areas of concentration.

Graduation Requirements

To be awarded the Master of Divinity Degree, students must satisfy the following requirements:

1. Completion of ninety (90) semester hours.
2. Maintain a cumulative average of "C" or better.
3. Removal of all "I" (incompletes).

MASTER OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

The Master of Religious Education program is designed to equip students for competent leadership in Christian education to serve congregational ministries and other religious institutions. The Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university is required for admission to the program. Conferring of the degree is contingent upon the successful completion of 66 semester hours.

Primary Goals

1. Equip the student with the capacity for critical and constructive theological reflection regarding the content and processes of educational ministry.
2. Help students understand the educational, social, and behavioral sciences that undergird educational practice, as well as the cultural contexts in which educational ministry occurs.
3. Assist students with personal growth and spiritual maturity.
4. Provide skills in teaching and in the design, administration, and assessment of educational programming.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS
Master of Divinity and Master of Religious Education

OTS: OLD TESTAMENT STUDIES

OTS 501. SURVEY OF THE OLD TESTAMENT. The focus of this course is learning the content of all the books of the Old Testament. Students will take regular quizzes on the content of the books. Students will also be introduced to the history of ancient Israel and some of the critical methods employed in studying the text. 3 hours

OTS 502. THEOREYS AND PRACTICE OF OLD TESTAMENT EXEGESIS. The focus of this course is building interpretative skills. In addition to learning and applying critical methods to various texts, students will also examine the philosophical and theological presuppositions of the methods. Students will consider issues relating to the interpretation of the text, such as the canonical process, the authority of the text, the relationship of the Old Testament to the New, etc. Prerequisite OTS 501. 3 hours

EXEGETICAL COURSES. The instructor will offer upper-level exegetical courses on selected books in the Hebrew Bible. Prerequisites OTS 501, 502. 3 hours.

OTS 511 Exegesis of Pentateuch/English
OTS 512 Exegesis of Former Prophets/English
OTS 513 Exegesis of Latter Prophets/English
OTS 514 Exegesis of Writings/English

OTS 515. THEOLOGY OF THE HEBREW BIBLE. Students will examine different approaches to understanding the theology of the Old Testament and discern the theologies represented in the text itself. The class will be taught as a seminar, a major component of the class being in-class presentations by the students. Prerequisites OTS 501, 502. 3 hours

OTS 516. TEACHING AND PREACHING THE OLD TESTAMENT. Students will examine ways in which Old Testament texts may be used in the life of the church. In addition to considering appropriate ways of approaching bible study and church school classes on the Old Testament, students will examine ways of preaching the Old Testament and using Old Testament texts in other ways within various services of worship. Prerequisites OTS 501, 502. 3 hours.
OTS 517. INTRODUCTION TO BIBLICAL HEBREW I. This is a two-semester course. Students must finish both semesters. Students will learn the basic of Hebrew grammar. As early as possible in the course, students will begin reading from the Hebrew Bible. To the extent practical, there will be interactive sessions with religious practitioners from the various faith communities. 3 hours

FED: FIELD EDUCATION
Each student enrolled in Shaw University Divinity School is expected to successfully complete a minimum of three semester hours in field education. This requirement rests on the conviction that theory and practice in the disciplines of theology must be integrated, and that the student, while in divinity school, should be provided with a situation in life and appropriate supervision wherein this integration can take place.

Candidates for the master of divinity degree may satisfy the requirements for Field Education by enrolling in PPC 507 at a center certified by the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education.

Program Objectives
The field experience is designed to (1) assist students in developing vocational identity as ministers by providing experience with a variety of ministry tasks; (2) provide a context for testing and reconstructing theological concepts; (3) develop the ability to do critical and reflective thinking by relating theory and practice; (4) provide the opportunity to achieve a level of professional competence; and (5) bring academic studies, personal experiences, and critical reflection into meaningful dialogue for effective ministry.

Field Education Options:

FED 501. SUPERVISED MINISTRY

STUDENTS SERVING AS PASTORS. Students who are pastors are strongly advised to limit their course load to nine hours per semester and to use their pastoral appointments as learning contexts for field education programs initiated by the school. A supervisor will be assigned to guide the students' learning activities in the parish. 3 hours (Practicum)
STUDENTS SERVING IN AN INSTITUTIONAL CONTEXT. For students planning an institutional ministry or who desire an exposure to ministries other than the pastorate. Supervised ministry can be arranged and approved in an institutional context such as a hospital or prison. 3 hours

STUDENTS SERVING IN THE PARISH. Supervised ministry in a local parish under the supervision of the pastor or other qualified person approved by the faculty. A minimum of 10 hours per week is required. 3 hours

CREATING A MINISTRY. Ministry in a non-ecclesiastical context (street corner, game room, clubs, etc.) under the supervision of an experienced field supervisor in the area and a faculty member whereby the student explores ways of bringing the Gospel to bear upon the unchurched. Prerequisite: a proposal approved by the faculty. 3 hours

STUDENTS SERVING IN CONCURRENT INTERNSIDP. Concurrent internship in a church or agency under the supervision of the faculty and a field supervisor. 3 hours

Other creative arrangements and paradigms in Field Education are encouraged. These must first be approved by the Dean before any academic credit can be given for the experience(s). All field supervisors must be approved by the Dean.

Orientation and Training of Supervisors
All volunteer supervisors, coordinators, and related personnel are expected to participate in a special orientation and training program provided by Shaw University Divinity School.

MIN: MINISTRY PREPARATION STUDIES

MIN 501. THESIS. The thesis project is an independent study done under the thesis director who will advise students and direct to appropriate faculty for consultation in their area of interest. The thesis allows students to pursue in-depth study in a particular area of interest. 3 hours

MIN 502. SPIRITUAL FORMATION. This is an introductory course designed to assist first year students in identifying and understanding their spiritual formation and development. The course includes discussion and theological reflection as it relates to course objectives. Particular attention is given to how students understand theological education, call to ministry, spiritual, personal, and professional identity formation. Students will have the opportunity to dialogue with local pastors/spiritual leaders. 3 hours

MIN 503. SPIRITUAL INTEGRATION. This course is designed to be an exit course for seniors. Students are advised to enroll in this course in the final semester of their matriculation. Students will be expected to probe the integration of theory and praxis. Students will reflect and write on their theological experience and the impact of theological education upon their understanding of Christian doctrines. Students will engage in class discussion and dialogue with ministry leaders. 3 hours
GRT: GERONTOLOGY

GRT 501. ETHNOGERONTOLOGY AND ELDERCARE. Introduces students to major gerontological theories, methodologies, and findings about biological, psychological, and sociocultural aging. Students will study ethnogerontologic and ethnogeriatric findings and issues about diverse black elders, with emphasis on those who are most at-risk and gain an understanding of public policies and programs for older adults. Students will be introduced to major demographic data related to aging and be provided a practicum for the collection and analysis of primary data related to health, family and social networks and patterns of African Americans age 65 and over. 3 hours

GRT 504. BLACK CHURCHES AND ELDERCARE. Focuses on need for and advantages of church involvement in eldercare programs; philosophies and strategies of initiating, financing, and maintaining eldercare programs in local parishes; planning and conducting eldercare workshops for parish members; effective counseling of at-risk black elders and their caregivers; and pastoral advocacy for at-risk elders and collaboration with local aging agencies. 3 hours

GRT 590. SEMINARS IN GERONTOLOGY. This course is designed to enhance the knowledge and skills of persons who are working or who plan to work with and for older adults. Students will gain knowledge and understanding of the theological or spiritual and related aspects of aging; awareness of and familiarity with various national and local church programs; and abilities and skills in planning programs for older adults. 3 hours

GRT 510. PRACTICUM IN GERONTOLOGY. This course will introduce the student to gerontology as a field of study and as a science. It will provide the student an opportunity to develop a project in gerontology that may be implemented in a local church or other ministry context. 3 hours

FACULTY COLLOQUIY SERIES

The Faculty Colloquy Series is conducted monthly and uses regular faculty persons to deliver special lectures or conduct seminars in their areas of concentration with special attention to new trends and/or developments in the various disciplines. Resource persons beyond the Shaw University Divinity School faculty are also scheduled under this series. These seminars are without cost to full-time students. Lunch is available at cost.

SHAW UNIVERSITY DIVINITY SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Shaw University Divinity School Alumni Association is responsible for coordinating all matters relating to alumni activities through the Shaw University Office of Alumni Affairs. This organization maintains a roster of all current and former students including such information as current address, a record of achievements, and biographical synopsis. The Shaw University Divinity School Alumni Association is frequently called upon to research this biographical information.

All persons who matriculated at Shaw University Divinity School, those who received degrees and those honored by the Divinity School (honorary doctorate and similar honors) are considered alumni/ae. As members of the Shaw University Divinity School Alumni Association, they receive The Seminarian, annual calendars of events, and other publications, which may be printed from time to time.

The Alumni Association holds its annual meeting on campus on Tuesday following the third Sunday in March, which is also the second day of the Annual Alexander/Pegues Ministers' Conference. Several SUDS alumni chapters have been organized in various geographical areas where alumni reside. These chapters assist the Divinity School in the recruitment of students, fund-raising, provide a network system for alumni relocation, and support the needs of the Divinity School.

OFFICE OF WOMEN'S CONCERNS

The Office of Women's Concerns seeks to serve the total student body, as well as faculty and staff in matters relating to women's issues. This office deals with special problems and sensitivities of women students and advocates gender inclusiveness in all aspects of campus life at Shaw University Divinity School. It provides resources on women's concerns and helps to integrate the spirit of gender equality throughout the state and nation.

The Director of Women's Concerns is primarily responsible for advocacy, women's studies, counseling, working with women's groups, and assisting women graduates with job placement.

Shaw University Divinity School recognizes the changing trends in seminaries across the country and the unique sensitivities and gifts that women bring to ministry.
